

JONES, 'WEE' BARRETT NAMED FOR SHERIFF

Meek Wins Nomination for Senate

Will Oppose Sen. Douglas Next November

Rep. Velde Wins
Renomination
For Fourth Term

CHICAGO (U)—Joseph T. Meek won the Republican senatorial nomination and will oppose Democratic Sen. Paul H. Douglas next November in what may be one of the nation's hardest fought senatorial elections.

Meek, a retail trade lobbyist pledged to "keep our government to the right," outdistanced a bulky field of eight other candidates in Tuesday's Illinois primary, the first state political test of 1954.

Rep. Harold Velde, chairman of the House Un-American Activities committee, had little trouble winning nomination for a fourth term. Velde stood off a challenge by Robert H. Allison, a one-armed state legislator.

Douglas Shows Strength

Returns from 9,100 of the state's 9,805 precincts gave Meek 266,595 votes to 164,320 for Edward A. Hayes, a former national commander of the American Legion. Chicago attorney Austin L. Wyman, who based his campaign on support of President Eisenhower, had 98,488.

Park Livingston had 68,172. John Crane 55,268. Julius Klein 44,610. Herbert Geisler 25,251. Lar (America First) Daly 17,422 and Deneen Watson, who withdrew but not in time to remove his name from the ballot, 16,316.

Douglas, unopposed in the Democratic primary, was expected to poll close to 500,000 votes when the count is complete. Political sources said Douglas' show of strength, without a contest, was somewhat surprising.

Complete returns from Velde's district, the 18th, gave him 27,062 votes to 15,081 for Allison.

One of Velde's congressional colleagues ran into tougher sledding than Velde faced.

He was Republican Rep. Robert W. Chipfield, chairman of the House Foreign Affairs committee. Lawyer Lawrence Stickell, who campaigned against the foreign aid programs approved by Chipfield's committee, trailed him by only 3,865 votes with all precincts reporting.

Well Known in Illinois

Meek, president of the Illinois Federation of Retail Associations, has never run for political office before. But, as representative of some 60,000 Illinois businessmen and a busy after dinner speaker, he is one of the best-known men in Illinois.

Except for the key congressional races the election was a dull one. There were almost no contests on the Democratic ballot. All of the state's 25 congressmen ran for renomination and all made it—there were only 10 contested districts.

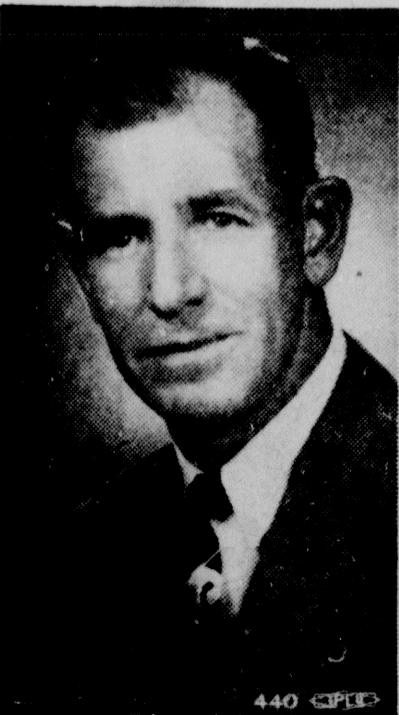

Among the more important congressmen renominated were Rep. Leo E. Allen, chairman of the House Rules committee, and Rep. Chauncey W. Reed, head of the House Judiciary committee.

xx Three precincts estimated.

Gordon E. Kerr of Brookport and W. O. Verhines of Vienna, Republicans, and Paul Powell, Democrat of Vienna, will continue as representatives in the General Assembly from the 51st Senatorial District, following results of the primary Tuesday.

With two Republicans and one Democrat to be nominated, and three to be elected, the election of the three will be automatic in November.

Kerr again led the Republican legislative ticket with a total of 16,914 votes, on the basis of unofficial returns compiled by The Register, with two Johnson county precincts estimated.

Verhines, with 14,392 on the same basis, was second winner. Dale H. Sullivan of Harrisburg totaled 11,430 votes, but trailed Verhines. Dave E. Evans of Harrisburg was the other candidate, with 4,856 votes.

Each of the three leaders topped their own counties, with Kerr and Sullivan also leading in two other counties. Kerr won the lead in Massac and Pope; Verhines in Johnson and Sullivan in Saline and Hamilton.

Since there was no contest in the race for the Democratic nomination, few of the results of that race have been kept unofficially, and must await the canvass. Paul Powell had an impressive 10,116 votes in Saline county.

Rep. Cutler Defeated in Bid for Renomination; In Legislature Since '22

CHICAGO (U)—Voters of the 43rd District threw Rep. Reed Cutler out of the Illinois House Tuesday, probably ending a legislative career that began in 1922.

Cutler, a Republican, had the company of another GOP member and three Democratic incumbents whose constituents decided to eliminate them from another term in the House.

The Democrats were Bernard C. Prusinski (27th), Chicago; Fred L. Goodwin (36th), Quincy, and Leland J. Kennedy (47th), Alton. The other Republican was Harvey Pearson (8th), Wauconda.

Every incumbent of both parties in the Senate succeeded in winning renomination.

As a result of the balloting, 41 Republicans and 37 Democrats are assured of election to the House in November under the system of "agreed" districts. Since it takes 77 seats to control the House, the GOP will need to win 36 seats and the Democrats 40 to hold sway in the House. The Republicans now control both the Senate and House.

3 Women Legislators
Cutler was defeated by his fellow townsman, Paul C. Zempel, a young lawyer who waged a vigorous campaign, making extensive use of newspaper criticism which accused Cutler of voting with Chicago's so-called West Side Bloc on many measures.

Complete returns from the 43rd's 119 precincts in Fulton and Knox counties gave Zempel a decisive victory of 18,852 votes to Cutler's 12,060½. Another incumbent, Richard R. Larson (R-Galesburg) had 16,670½.

During 14 terms in the Legislature, broken only from 1930 to 1934, Cutler has been one of the most potent Republican legislators, aided by a skill for oratorical sarcasm that on occasion literally reduced his opponents to tears.

Three Republican women legislators beat opponents to retain nominations for the House. They were Reps. Mabel T. Green, Chicago; Pauline B. Rinaker, Carlinville, and Bernice T. Van Der Vries, Chicago.

Rep. Warren L. Wood (R-Plainfield), speaker of the House, won renomination, as did House Majority Leader Franklin U. Strassky (R-Savanna).

He is survived by his wife, Snoda; a son, James; two sisters, Mrs. Jackie Lusk, Detroit, Mich., and Mrs. Della Thorne, Harrisburg; and three brothers, Howard and Vernie, Harrisburg, and Wesley, Adrian, Mich.

Mrs. Allie Austin, 81, Native of Pope County, Dies in Herrin Hospital

Mrs. Allie Austin, 81, widow of Milo Austin who passed away rather recently, died in the Herrin hospital Tuesday at noon.

A native of Pope county, she is survived by a daughter, Mrs. John Maynor, Eddyville, and two stepchildren, Mrs. Hettie Seymour and Van Austin, both of Herrin.

The body is now at the St. James funeral home in Herrin, and tomorrow it will be taken to the Mt. Zion church for the funeral which will be held at 2 p. m. Rev. Otto Kunath, assisted by Rev. Elbert Eleam, will officiate, and burial will be in the church cemetery.

Four Illinois Cities Defeat Sales Tax Proposals

CHICAGO (U)—Four Illinois cities Tuesday defeated a referendum to levy a ½ cent sales tax on the dollar in addition to the state sales tax of 2 cents.

Reports from Springfield, Peoria, Mt. Vernon and Cairo showed general disfavor of the proposed tax plan.

Only in Mt. Vernon was the vote close. With 13 of 17 city precincts reporting, 1,457 voted yes and 1,647 voted no.

With 102 of Springfield's 121 precincts reporting, the tax plan was defeated 15,247 to 7,989. City Commissioner Kohorst said that he will now try to get the City Council to pass a cigarette and wheel tax to get needed revenue.

Cairo defeated the city sales tax with 14 of its 16 precincts reporting, 2,993 to 488 against the proposed plan.

Peoria, with all 137 precincts tabulated, voted 18,190 no and 5,039 yes on the question of a city sales tax.

10 Congressmen With Opposition Win Re-Election

CHICAGO (U)—All 10 Illinois congressmen facing opposition won renomination in the primary election, returns showed today, and only one got a real run for his money.

Fifteen incumbents were unopposed.

The closest race was in the 19th District in west central Illinois where Republican Rep. Robert W. Chipfield, chairman of the House Foreign Affairs Committee, staved off a challenge by Atty. Lawrence Stuckell of Galesburg by a little less than 4,000 votes.

Rep. Harold H. Velde, head of the House Un-American Activities Committee, defeated State Rep. Robert Allison, 27,062 votes to 15,081, final returns from the 18th District showed.

Republican Rep. Leo Allen, chairman of the Rules Committee, was nominated in a better than two-to-one victory over his closest 16th District rival, Robert R. Canfield of Rockford. Returns from 328 of 386 precincts gave Allen 25,331 votes to Canfield's 11,339.

Chipfield was nominated in the 19th District by a scant margin of 3,865 votes. Final returns gave Chipfield 23,287 votes and 19,422 for Stuckell.

Republican Rep. Chauncey W. Reed, West Chicago, chairman of the Judiciary Committee, won easily over two foes in the 14th District. With 291 out of the district's 328 precincts reporting, Reed had 36,200 votes to 6,741 for Robert L. Farnsworth, Glen Ellyn, and 2,843 for William C. Jerome of Elmhurst.

In the 25th District Rep. C. W. (Runt) Bishop, only GOP incumbent with opposition in downstate contests, finished far ahead of three challengers. Bishop had 22,697 votes compared to 11,214 for his closest competitor, Alfred Van Hoose of Cambria.

Virgil Pearcy Funeral Thursday

The funeral of Virgil Pearcy, well-known Harrisburg resident who was fatally injured in a fall while working on the Junior high school project, will be Thursday at 2 p. m. at the Gaskins funeral home, where the body now lies in state. Rev. W. L. Cummins will conduct the service, and burial will be in Sunset Lawn cemetery.

He is survived by his wife, Snoda; a son, James; two sisters, Mrs. Jackie Lusk, Detroit, Mich., and Mrs. Della Thorne, Harrisburg; and three brothers, Howard and Vernie, Harrisburg, and Wesley, Adrian, Mich.

Mrs. Allie Austin, 81, Native of Pope County, Dies in Herrin Hospital

Mrs. Allie Austin, 81, widow of Milo Austin who passed away rather recently, died in the Herrin hospital Tuesday at noon.

A native of Pope county, she is survived by a daughter, Mrs. John Maynor, Eddyville, and two stepchildren, Mrs. Hettie Seymour and Van Austin, both of Herrin.

The body is now at the St. James funeral home in Herrin, and tomorrow it will be taken to the Mt. Zion church for the funeral which will be held at 2 p. m. Rev. Otto Kunath, assisted by Rev. Elbert Eleam, will officiate, and burial will be in the church cemetery.

Glen O. Jones Big Winner for State Senator

Saline Republican Wins Four Out of Five 51st Counties

Republican State Senator

County	Glen O. Jones	Carl H. Jordan
Hamilton	1150	1375
Saline	4538	548
Johnson xx	2400	475
Massac	1481	771
Pope	1248	227
Total	10,817	3396

Glen O. Jones, state's attorney of Saline county, making his first bid for district political honors, won a most decisive victory in the race for the Republican nomination for State Senator from the 51st District.

Jones defeated his opponent, Carl H. Jordan of Hamilton county, 10,817 to 3,396, according to practically complete unofficial returns in Tuesday's primary.

Jones carried Saline, Johnson, Massac and Pope counties by large majorities, and received 45 percent of the vote in Hamilton county.

Although not technically assured, Jones' victory is tantamount to election, since the 51st Senatorial District is preponderantly Republican. There was no Democratic candidate for the place. LeRoy Barham of Harrisburg received several write-ins in Saline county as the Democratic nominee.

Arthur Van Houser, Metropolis Republican will be the retiring State Senator. Mr. Van Houser was not a candidate for re-election.

Easter Address At Kiwanis by Rev. Winegarden

We should have an understanding of the Easter story and we should care that Jesus Christ died on the cross for us, Rev. Robert Winegarden, pastor of the Church of the Nazarene church, stated in an address to the Kiwanis last night at the Masonic temple.

Stating the saddest verse in scripture is where the "people stood there around the cross and watched Jesus die," Rev. Winegarden said the "I don't care" attitude prevails in America today. "We should care that Jesus died on the cross; we should care what happens in our homes and in our community," Rev. Winegarden said.

He urged that we keep the light of freedom burning in our land, keep the light of fellowship burning and keep the light of the Easter story burning in our hearts.

Ronnie Doerge, chairman of the Kiwanis Easter Sunrise service committee, announced that plans have been completed for the program to be held at the Harrisburg Drive-in theatre Sunday at 6 a. m. He stated that in case of rain the speakers and the choir will be moved indoors and those who attend may hear the program from the loud speakers.

Bob Campbell, geologist for The New Jersey Zinc company office here, was a guest of Ronnie Doerge at last night's meeting.

GLEN O. JONES, nominated for the State Senate by the Republicans in Tuesday's primary. He will be unopposed in the November election.

Both Candidates From Eldorado For Fall Election

Hilliard, Garrison Win Nomination in County Clerk Race

Layman Jones beat out Henry C. Dempsey for the Republican nomination for sheriff by a little more than a hundred votes and William T. "Wee" Barrett took the Democratic nomination to give Eldorado both candidates for this office in the November election.

The GOP race for sheriff was the closest by far of any contests in the county, which nominated these others to battle it out in the fall:

County Clerk: Paul Hilliard, Republican, vs. Don B. Garrison, Democrat;

County Judge: Ralph W. Choisser, Republican, vs. Trafton Dennis, Democrat;

County Treasurer: Paul Spangler, Republican, vs. Maynard Cannon, Democrat;

County Superintendent of Schools: R. Dale Wilson, Republican, vs. Raymond "Pete" Gardner, Democrat.

Vote Incomplete
Choisser, Dennis, Spangler, Cannon, Wilson and Gardner had no

(Tabulation of County Votes on Page Six)

opposition in the primary, but there were contests for sheriff and county clerk by both parties.

The vote was unofficial and a bit incomplete this morning but was definite enough to establish winners. The Carrier Mills Precincts 1 and 2 Democratic totals and the results for both parties in Rector were not available to the Register this morning and with them out, Hilliard was ahead of Verner E. Joyner 2,424 to 1,543, with Herman Conover getting 444 and Raymond "Red" Allen 775, for GOP county clerk.

In the Democratic race incumbent Don B. Garrison had 2,763 to 1,433 for his opponent, Earl M. Dabney.

"Wee" Barrett, with the three precincts out, led Roy Ross Lane 1,440 to 1,124, with James B. Woodard getting 1,094 and Frank W. Bruce 402 for Democratic sheriff.

Follow State Voting
For sheriff, Jones had 2,155 to 2,045 for Dempsey with the Harrisburg man doing very well in his home town and Jones in his. However, the winner came out of Carrier Mills and some of the other precincts far enough ahead to give him the narrow margin of victory. Charles (Dee) Barrett had 766, Ebert May 348 and John H. L. Parish 143.

That was all of the contests for county office and unofficial results for the uncontested candidates for county office can be found in a tabulation carried on page six of this edition of The Daily Register.

There were no state or district contests on the Democratic ballot but the Republican ballot was full of them.

Saline county Republicans went along with the rest of the state in giving its biggest margin to Joseph T. Meek for United States senator with Edward A. Hayes a very close second. With Rector out, the unofficial was Meek 1,181, Hayes 1,140 and Julius Klein 711 among the 13 candidates.

The county gave Warren E. Wright an overwhelming majority for Republican state treasurer, almost doubling the total over his

Administration Miffed At Publicity Jump by Scientist Oppenheimer

By LYLE C. WILSON

United Press Staff Correspondent

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Eisenhower administration today sought the fastest possible action on the security charges against atom bomb builder J. Robert Oppenheimer. It's frankly miffed at the way he got the publicity jump.

Officials emphasized in their statements here that it was Dr. Oppenheimer who gave the press the confidential papers in the case against him. He broke no laws in so doing, but the famed scientist thus won a publicity advantage of enormous proportions.

In this interval between publication of the charges that Oppenheimer is a security risk and the time a security board decision is handed down, the public will have before it the scientist's detailed and emphatic repudiation. And there will be this interval in which interested persons can organize a powerful propaganda campaign in Oppenheimer's behalf.

Receives Support

Scientists generally are expected to rally to his cause and a large body of the lay public began moving to his side Tuesday when the newest Oppenheimer chapter unfolded as one of the shockers of recent history.

The Atomic Energy Commission announced Tuesday afternoon that President Eisenhower had stripped Oppenheimer of further access to A-bomb and H-bomb secrets because of "substantial derogatory information" supplied by the Justice Department.

It spoke after Oppenheimer himself released documents revealing the AEC had suspended him as one of its consultants pending investigation of charges that he once associated with Communists and lobbied against H-bomb development.

In his reply, the man who masterminded U. S. development of the A-bomb denied he ever was a Communist party member and insisted he did not oppose the H-bomb project after the government ordered its development.

Probed by McCarthy

In Phoenix, Ariz., where he is recuperating from a virus infection, Sen. Joseph R. McCarthy (R-Wis.) asserted Tuesday night that he launched a secret investigation of Oppenheimer last May but that his investigating subcommittee voted against public hearings because of national security.

McCarthy said he had affidavits "showing Oppenheimer had been a member of the Communist party and had recommended individuals, who were or had been Communists, for atomic project work." The senator said Oppenheimer's suspension was "long overdue."

He said AEC Chairman Lewis L. Strauss exhibited considerable courage in suspending Oppenheimer and that he would not continue his own inquiry unless the administration's investigation bogs down.

McCarthy said he believes there isn't a "single atomic or hydrogen secret which is not available to the Communists."

The hearings to determine whether Oppenheimer's suspension should be permanent are being held before a strong board whose judgment for or against Oppenheimer will have tremendous impact upon the public.

Its members are Gordon Gray, former Army secretary and now president of the University of North Carolina, President Thomas A. Morgan of the Sperry Corporation, and chemistry Professor Ward V. Evans, Loyola University, Chicago.

Such a group is not likely to be accused of witch hunting or whitewashing.

Baptist Pauline Moore Circle Has Lesson on Brazil

Mrs. Georgia Ziegler, 309 North Granger, was hostess to the Pauline Moore circle of the First Baptist church last evening.

Preceding the business meeting dessert of cheese cake and coffee was served to one visitor, Mrs. Carla Turner, and to the following members: Mrs. Elizabeth Ferrell, Mrs. Joyce Swansy, Mrs. Maureen Sutton, Mrs. Geneva Gibbs, Miss Marcustine Miller Hodge, Miss Marveen Thomas, Mrs. Venita Gilley, Mrs. LaDonna Hughes, Mrs. Marjorie Sowers, Mrs. D. H. Hiller, circle leader, and Mrs. George Ziegler, hostess.

The secretary, Mrs. Ziegler, gave the report during the business session, and it was decided to have a picnic at the country home of Miss Thomas for the May meeting.

The program on "Medical Missions in South America" was opened with the singing of the song, "The Great Physician." The program chairman, Mrs. Sutton, gave the devotional scriptures: Mark 1:32-34; Matthew 9:35-36; and Matthew 25:37-40.

The words of the song, "Give of Your Best to the Master," were read by Mrs. Hiller, who then offered prayer that all hearts may become more compassionate.

The first topic which was the introduction to the lesson was given by Mrs. Sowers who spoke on "Day Clinics in South America," and on the activities of Home Missions board in Brazil. "Healing Ministry of Young Nationals," was given by Mrs. Gilley, who closed with prayer for the work of the clinics, the pastors, nurses and young Brazilian doctors. Mrs. Ziegler then gave a talk on the subject "Clinica Bautista," telling of the famous Dr. Killmar who never let a patient leave his hospital with a "well body and a sick soul." Her prayer included Dr. Killmar, Miss Darline Elliot and others working in this hospital.

The final topic on "Baptist Hospital, Asuncion, Paraguay" was given by Miss Thomas, who told of a hospital built there by the offerings from the Lottie Moon fund. She also concluded with prayer for the nurses and doctors in this hospital and that other workers will be sent out.

The program was closed with the song, "Make Me a Channel of Blessing." The program booklets, made by Mrs. Hiller, were in the form of the country of Brazil with the places that were mentioned in the lesson on a map which made up the cover.

A delightful social hour followed the program.

France to Join U. S., Britain for Defense of Asia

PARIS (AP) — France agreed today to join the United States and Britain in plans for the collective defense of Southeast Asia.

Program on Spanish-Americans By Lenore Circle

The Lenore circle of the Presbyterian church celebrated its first meeting Monday evening in the new church with a potluck supper at 6 o'clock, with Mrs. Herman Seifried and Gladys Gaskins serving as hostesses. Mr. and Mrs. G. C. Benson, Steve Farrar and John Boicourt were especially invited guests.

Following a short social hour after supper, the meeting was called to order by Mrs. Stella Brashears, circle chairman.

Mrs. Mildred Boicourt had the devotion, closing with prayer for the missionaries mentioned in the Year Book of Prayer.

Mrs. Benson, guest speaker for the evening, was then presented by Miss Jean Selby, Missionary Education secretary. Mrs. Benson told of the Spanish-Americans in this country, of which there are three groups, the first one being the Spanish who came across the border from Mexico after the conquest of Mexico by the Spaniards, settling largely in New Mexico, long before the Pilgrim Fathers landed in New England. This group has much the same customs and do not mingle with outsiders to any great extent, although with the coming of the missionaries, some of this is gradually being changed.

The second group is the Mexicans, most of whom are migrant workers, travelling to all different parts of the West and Central United States for seasonal crops and returning to their homes in Mexico at the close of the season. How- ever, Mrs. Benson said that about one-sixth of the population of Texas is Mexican.

The third group of Spanish-Americans is the Puerto Ricans, who are actually U. S. citizens. Most Puerto Ricans who come to the mainland settle in New York, Chicago and other large industrial centers. Mrs. Benson also said that 80% of the Spanish-Americans in the United States are located in New Mexico and most of the Presbyterian Mission stations and hospitals are also located in that state. It was news to the circle that Santa Fe is the only state capital that does not have a railroad.

The following members were present in addition to those previously mentioned: Mrs. Silas Anderson, Lelle Anderson, Mrs. Harry Barter, Ada Cable, Mattie Martin, Edith and Mary Morrison, Mrs. Nellie Meyers, Ethel Ewing, Julia Williamson, Juanita Joiner and Mrs. Steve Farrar.

The next meeting of this circle will be held at the church April 26 with Miss Anderson and Miss Cable as hostesses.

Millard F. Holloway, Gallatin county sheriff from 1946 to 1950, won the Republican nomination for sheriff of that county in yesterday's primary and will oppose Aubrey Willis for the office in November, unofficial results disclosed.

Figures revealed Holloway beat his nearest competitor, Henry James, by about 65 votes. His total was 627, James' 562. Jewell Sisk and Elmer Durham were other candidates seeking the nomination.

Willis won by approximately the same margin, it was stated. He had 850 votes to John W. Wilson's 785. Max H. West ran third.

In the GOP county treasurer race Joe E. Wright received 656 votes, Ray Coffey 521, and W. E. Talbott 379. Joseph R. Hale was unopposed for county judge and Yules Wren for county clerk.

There was no GOP candidate on the ballot for superintendent of schools.

On the Democratic ticket William S. Rister won the nomination for county clerk. His total vote was 750. William N. Sanders received 682 and Ed L. McGuire 483 in their unsuccessful bid for the same nomination. Zack Wood beat A. G. Wallace for county treasurer and incumbent Horace G. Brown was winner over Millegie M. CHICAGO (AP) — Thomas J. Curran was nominated in Tuesday's balloting to fill the seat in the Illinois House that was occupied by Rep. Clem Graver until he was kidnapped by hoodlums almost a year ago.

Graves was kidnapped last June outside his West Side Chicago home in the 15th District. No trace of him has ever been found despite an intensive search and investigation.

He was a Republican and voters of the party Tuesday nominated Curran to succeed him. Curran said he had no fears that he might some day suffer the same fate as Graves.

The balloting also elected, not nominated, state central, township and Senate party committeemen. Fifteen Illinois congressmen were unopposed and the 10 that met opposition all pulled through to win.

Wright Nominated
Warren E. Wright, a former state treasurer campaigning as an "independent Republican," won the GOP nomination for state treasurer. Conrad F. Becker of Red Bud, another past holder of the office, trailed by about 50,000 votes, returns showed with about 1,000 precincts unreported. State Rep. Robert J. Branson of Centralia ran third.

Wright will tangle with Democrat David F. Mallett of East St. Louis next November. Mallett was unopposed.

Wife Asks Million Dollars for Loss of Hubby's Affections

CHICAGO — A suburban housewife today demanded one million dollars in heart balm for the loss of her husband's affections, but his attorney demanded that she prove his love was worth that much.

Mrs. Bianca Hunter, 29, Skokie, charged in a suit filed Tuesday that 21-year-old Betty Eremia began "willfully and maliciously to destroy and alienate the affections" of Mrs. Hunter's husband, John.

The 37-year-old businessman operates the Utility Machine & Engineering Co.

Hunter's attorney, Louis Z. Grant, said he would ask that the suit be dismissed on the grounds that Illinois law requires damages awarded in alienation of affection suits must be limited "to specific losses which must be proved."

Mrs. Hunter said that she has "wholly lost and been deprived of her husband's company, affection, comfort and assistance to the extent of one million dollars."

Mercury's Temperatures
The planet Mercury is believed to keep one side toward the sun at all times, and since the planet is very near the sun, enormous temperatures are to be expected there.

Ridgway Nips Shawneetown High Nine, 7-6

Ridgway pushed across two runs in the last of the seventh yesterday afternoon to nip arch-rival Shaw-neetown, 7-6, in a hard fought dia-mond match. Leon Drone stole home with the winning run.

The Eagles entered the seventh frame with a 5-4 lead, but Shaw-neetown collected a pair of runs when Garrison Newsom tripled with a mate aboard. Newsom scored later on a fielder's choice to give the Indians a 6-5 edge.

Ridgway countered in the last stanza, with John Mills and Leon Drone singling. Pat Drone follow-ed with a fielder's choice, and then Leon stole home for the winning marker.

Bobby Spottsville clobbered a homerun in the fourth with two men on, as Shawneetown collected four runs in the spree. Ridgway had scored three in the first and one each in the third and fourth.

Mills hurled the entire game for Ridgway, fanning 12 and walking four. Newsom shouldered the mound chores for Shawneetown. He whiffed 10 and walked two.

Yankees and Dodgers Lose Season's Opening Games; Cubs Trip Cardinals, 13-4

By CARL LUNDQUIST
United Press Sports Writer
Nine out of the last 10 major league pennant winners scored opening day victories and if that means anything the Yankees and Dodgers could be in trouble.

Because both were off on the wrong foot today.

The Yankees went 10 innings in Washington before Mickey Vernon hit a prodigious two-run homer that gave the Senators a 3-2 vic-tory and prompted President Elsenhower to make a special trip down to congratulate him after the game.

The blow, a long one as all homers must be in Washington, came off erstwhile Yankee ace Allie Reynolds, who previously walked Ed Yost.

Giants Win, 4-3
Of course, the Yankees as usual have a double in their favor. The only exception in the pattern whereby pennant winners score opening day victories occurred last season when the Athletics beat them, 5-0, for the only opening day loss Casey Stengel had suffered in five flag-winning seasons. In the National League, for five seasons every pennant winner had an opening day triumph, the Dodgers in 1953 and 1952, the Giants in 1951 before they went into an 11-game losing streak, the Phils in 1950, and the Dodgers again in 1949.

In the Polo Grounds, the Giants made only four hits off Carl Er-sine but three were homers by Al Dark, Hank Thompson, and Wil-lie Mays and thereby hung the tale of a 4-3 victory. Roy Campanella hit two homers off winner Sal Mag-lie, who received great one-hit re-lief help from Merv Grissom in the final 2-3 innings.

Cubs Beat Cardinals, 13-4
It was a day of heavy slugging, this 1954 inaugural with 12 homers in the National as compared with six last year and nine in the Amer-ican as compared with four in the 1953 openers. In other National League games Cincinnati out-slugged Milwaukee 8-4, the Cubs topped the Cards at St. Louis 13-4 with 16 hits, while Pittsburgh came from behind to defeat the Phillies 4-2. Elsewhere in the American League, the A's defeated Boston, 6-4, Detroit blanked Baltimore 3-0, while Cleveland pounded out a 15-hit 8-3 triumph at Chicago.

Cincinnati made 13 hits, includ-ing four doubles by Jim Green-grass, coming from behind to win its traditional festive home opener despite two homers by Ed Mathe-ews, the 1953 home run king. Andy Pafo was hit on the head by a pitched ball after rapping three doubles for Milwaukee but was be-lieved to have escaped serious damage because of his protective helmet.

Robin Roberts still has his trou-bles that plagued him all spring. Going into the eighth with a three-hit shutout, the Pirates opened up and kayoed him with a four run rally.

Moon Hits Homer
Lefty Harvey Haddix, another big winner of 1953, was racked up in St. Louis by the Cubs who were paced by Clyde McCullough with a homer, two doubles, and a sin-gle. Rookie Gene Baker and pitch-er Paul Minner, who hurled six hit ball, also hit Cub homers while rookie Wally Moon of St. Louis hit a homer in his first big league time at bat. Stan Musial also hom-ered for the Cards.

At Philadelphia, the Athletics scored a victory but again lost lefty Bobby Shantz who went out in the sixth inning with the same kind of an arm injury that laid him low last year. Rookies Ozzie Van Brabant and Bill Upton col-laborated on saving Shantz' vic-tory while Gus Zernial hit a homer. Bill Renna drove in three runs and rookie Spook Jacobs made four hits. Sam White and Jack Jensen homered for Boston.

Steve Gromek turned in the day's best pitching job, blanking the Ori-gles, who still look suspiciously like last year's Browns. He gave up seven hits, struck out nine, and walked only two as Ray Boone, Walt Dropo, and rookie Frank Boll-ing homered for Detroit.

Early Wynn just breezed to a nine-hit victory (all singles) at Chi-cago as his mates pounded out 15, including homers by Wally Westlake and George Strickland.

Tuesday's star: Mickey Vernon of the Senators, who drew personal congratulations from President Elsenhower when he hit a two-run 10th inning homer to defeat the world champion Yankees, 6-4.

NEW YORK (AP)—The National Broadcasting Company has announced that the symphony orchestra directed by Arturo Toscanini for the last 17 years will be disbanded at the end of the current season.

It will be replaced on next year's nationwide broadcasts by the Boston Symphony Orchestra directed by Charles Munch, the network said.

Sylvester L. Weaver Jr., NBC president, said it had been decided to disband the famed symphony after Toscanini announced his retirement April 4. The orchestra was organized for Toscanini in 1937, Weaver said, and has cost the network more than one million dollars a year since then.

Federal Judge Stays Execution Of Rep. Bramblett

WASHINGTON (AP)—Federal Judge Walter M. Bastian today stayed the conviction of Rep. Ernest K. Bramblett (R-Calif.) on charges of lying about his office payroll.

Bastian granted a defense motion for "arrest of judgment." The decision forces the government to appeal directly to the Supreme Court to uphold the conviction.

Bramblett's attorney, Edward B. Williams, based the motion on a claim that the 52-year-old congressman was convicted under a false statement statute that does not apply to the congressional branch of government.

Bastian said in a written opinion there is a "reasonable doubt as to the applicability of the law."

Bramblett was convicted Feb. 9 on seven counts of false statements about the employment of Mrs. Margaret M. Swanson of Arlington, Va., in his congressional office. Witnesses at the trial said she did no work.

McCarthy Asks Army Report on Special Requests

WASHINGTON (AP)—Sen. Joseph R. McCarthy (R-Wis.) disclosed today he has asked the Defense Department for a report showing how many congressmen and government officials have sought special treatment of servicemen since the end of World War II.

He did not say why he wanted the information. But it could be ammunition for the forthcoming Senate hearings on the Army's charge that McCarthy and Roy M. Cohn used pressure to seek favors for Pvt. David G. Schine.

Schine was, and Cohn still is, an aide to McCarthy on the Senate Investigating Subcommittee. McCarthy has yielded chairmanship of the subcommittee temporarily so that other members may hold public hearings beginning next Thursday on the Army charge and McCarthy's counter-allegation that the Army tried to use Schine as a "hostage" to "blackmail" him.

McCarthy is in Arizona recovering from an attack of bronchitis. His office here made public a letter he wrote to Defense Secretary Charles E. Wilson on March 29. In it, McCarthy asked for a report on the number of requests for "special assignment and treatment" of servicemen received by the various armed services from members of Congress and executive department officials since the end of World War II.

Does Not Ask Names

The letter also asked Wilson to specify how many of the requests came from members of congressional committees dealing with the military services — including the armed services and appropriations.

He did not ask for the names of the congressmen who made the requests or for the names of the servicemen involved.

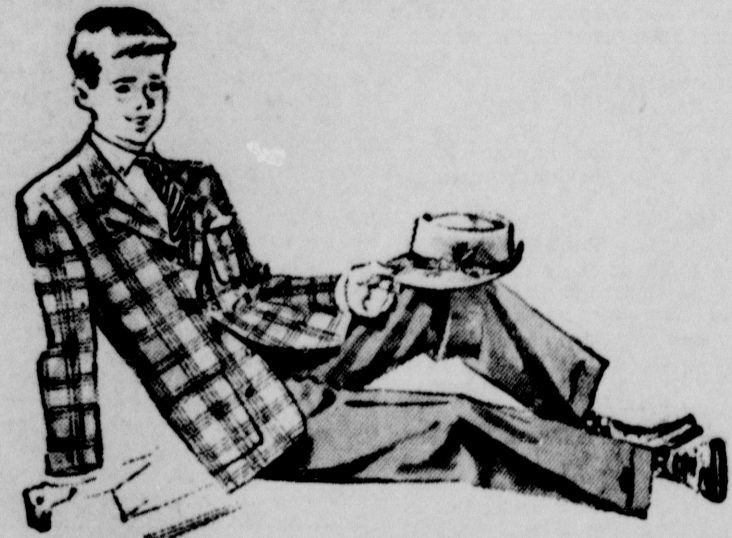

McCarthy also requested a detailed report of facilities and personnel assigned to handle these cases, and whether conversations about the requests "have been recorded or monitored in any way."

Finally, McCarthy asked how many reports of special requests the Defense Department had made public.

The armed services maintain liaison officers in both the Senate and House. Among their duties are the handling of congressional requests.

Housing Projects at Galatia, Carrier Mills

THE NON-FARM HOUSING PROJECTS in Galatia and Carrier Mills are now ready for occupancy. These projects are unlike the Harrisburg and Eldorado developments in that the buildings are one story duplexes with casement type windows and large yards. Galatia, No. Ill. 43-6, (top picture) has four main buildings with ten units—four, two-bedroom units, and six, three-bedroom units. West Carrier Mills, (white) No. Ill. 43-4, (second picture) has eight buildings—four, four-bedrooms, eight, two-bedrooms, and six, three-bedrooms, totaling 18 units. The Carrier Mills project on the East side (colored) No. Ill. 43-5, (bottom picture) has three buildings, with six family units. There are two, two-bedroom units, and four, three-bedroom units.

In any of these non-farm projects, there are no one-bedroom units, therefore couples are eligible for the two bedrooms. The Dunbar grade school is located across the street from the colored project in Carrier Mills which makes it convenient for the children. Someone from the Housing Project office at Harrisburg will be in Carrier Mills at the west side to take applications every Thursday afternoon.

Odd Fellows, Rebekahs to Meet April 24

Members of 175 Odd Fellows, Rebekah and subordinate lodges in 24 Southern Illinois counties today were planning to converge on West Frankfort April 24 for the 135th anniversary of the founding of the Independent Order of Odd Fellows in America.

The celebration is sponsored by the Southern Illinois Odd Fellows Anniversary Association, organized in 1907. More than 1,000 members of the Odd Fellow, Rebekah, Patriarch Militant and Encampment orders and their auxiliaries are expected to attend the gala West Frankfort affair.

Highlighting the occasion will be the guest appearance of numerous Odd Fellow and Rebekah dignitaries from various parts of the state.

The celebration will open with a morning session at which the lodge groups will be welcomed by Mayor Louie Harkins of West Frankfort. The response will be by J. W. Cude of Centralia, vice-president of the association.

Other first session features will include introduction of state officers and their staffs in all branches of the order, recognition of fifty-year members and a report by Virgil Brown, Carbondale postmaster, on progress of the Odd Fellow-Rebekah retreat currently being developed on a 30-acre Little Grassy Lake site in the Crab Orchard recreation area.

Guest speaker for the afternoon session will be Elbert C. Brasel of Jacksonville, past grand master and representative to the sovereign grand lodge.

Other features will include reports by Mr. and Mrs. Leo Campbell, superintendent and matron of the I. O. O. F. home for the aged at Mattoon, and Mr. and Mrs. William E. Wilson, superintendent and matron of the I. O. O. F. children's home at Lincoln.

Residing at the home for the aged are 158 members of lodge families. Sixty children from Odd Fellow families and broken homes, in some cases wards of courts, are cared for at the children's home.

The grand lodge of Illinois is currently cooperating with the Bob Hope fund and Kiwanis International on a plan for establishing a cerebral palsy clinic at the children's home.

Federal Aid for Youth Programs Proposed

WASHINGTON—Rep. Jacob K. Javits (R-N.Y.) believes the federal government should help state and community organizations combat juvenile delinquency.

He has introduced a bill to provide $50,000,000 in federal aid to state, municipal or private agencies for youth programs. The recipients would have to match federal aid funds on a 50-50 basis.

Javits stated that "the large number of rejections for the armed services of youth for physical and mental reasons and the serious incursions of crime... emphasize the need for this legislation."

The bill would make state youth programs eligible for federal support to provide educational facilities, psychiatric health service, vocational training, and actual employment projects.

Chunn to Direct Massed Elementary School Band at SIU Music Festival

Directors of massed bands and choruses for the Southern Illinois Music Festival May 8 were announced today by Floyd V. Wakefield, festival chairman.

Thousands of elementary and high school students from all parts of the area annually take part in the colorful "Music Under the Stars" program at Southern Illinois university which will feature Metropolitan Opera Contralto Jean Madeira as guest soloist this year.

The massed high school band will be directed by N. H. Hanes, Salem, and the elementary band by W. W. Chunn, Harrisburg. Conducting the high school choristers will be W. H. Beckmeyer, Mt. Vernon, while Norman E. Rodenberg, Marion, will lead the massed chorus of grade school children.

Hanes has been band director at Salem Community high school for 12 years and that organization has won recognition in state and national tours, giving concerts at Chicago, Detroit, Cincinnati, and Washington, with appearances on radio in Cincinnati and on television in Chicago. Formerly a conductor of the orchestra on the French liner Normandie, Hanes has also directed a Federal Music Project in Decatur, taught at the U. S. Navy School of Music in Washington, and played with the "Meet Your Navy" orchestra over the Mutual network.

Distance means nothing to your telephone.

Lift your receiver... you talk with Aunt Carrie around the corner or a business associate across the country. So quickly, easily you take the magic of your telephone for granted.

To bring you this great service, General Telephone System, of which we are a part, has invested hundreds of millions of dollars. Yet the cost of that service to you represents only a small part of your monthly budget.

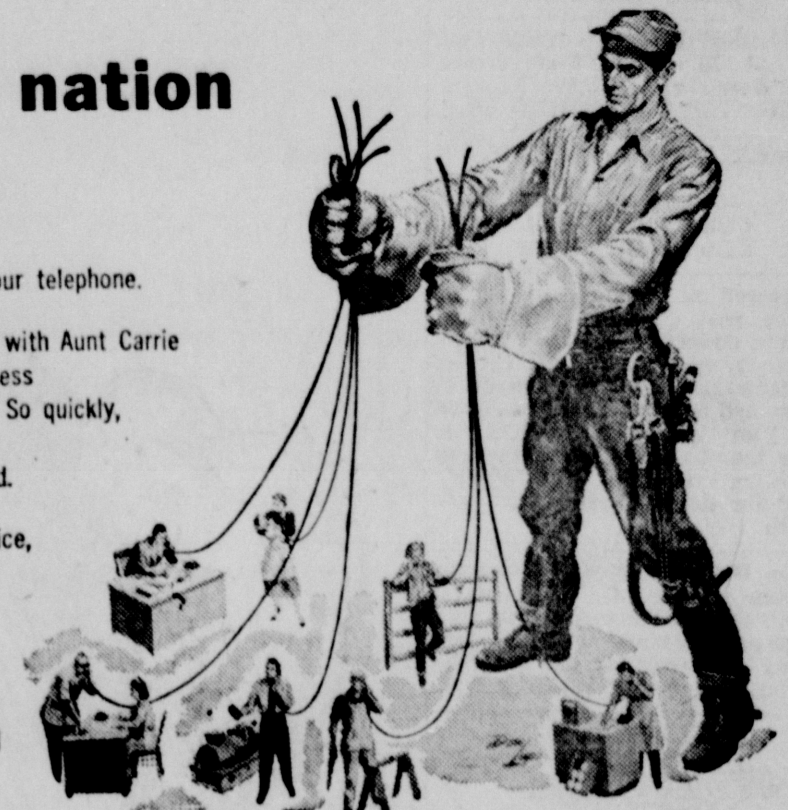

What else costs so little yet does so much so well?

This Is Going to Take a Lot of Maneuvering

The WASHINGTON MERRY-GO-ROUND
By DREW PEARSON

DREW PEARSON Says:
Mrs. Woodrow Wilson's Jealousy of Joe Tumulty Helped Kill League Of Nations.

WASHINGTON. — When Joseph
Patrick Tumulty, former secretary to Woodrow Wilson, died the other day I couldn't help remembering a rainy night many years ago when another man was dying and Joe stood out in the rain until four in the morning. He stood outside because his old chief was dying and Mrs. Woodrow Wilson would not let Joe in.

And at the funeral, uninvited,
Joe followed with the Negro servants in the rear.

Behind that incident is not merely a story of human emotions but of a clash which, if avoided, might have saved the peace of the world.

For, had Mrs. Wilson and Joe Tumulty pulled together instead of apart, had Mrs. Wilson not shut her husband off from the Senate during the tragic debate over the League of Nations and the Versailles treaty, they might have been ratified and the entire world might have been different.

The two people who loved Wilson most, his second wife and his secretary, have lived in Washington during the years since then, yet have never spoken to each other.

Tumulty, whose only love was Wilson, wanted him to wait until after the 1916 presidential election campaign to marry Mrs. Edith Galt. When Wilson finally decided otherwise, Tumulty said: "I'm sorry you're going to do that, governor. I was very fond of Mrs.
Wilson."

"I told Edith you'd say that," replied Wilson.

"Well, that's a nice way to get me started with her," shot back Tumulty, and from that day the second Mrs. Wilson was in open conflict with her husband's secretary.

Gradually they drifted further apart, so that when the League of Nations fight took place, it was Mrs. Wilson who virtually became secretary, decided who should or should not see her husband.

Sen. Hitchcock of Nebraska, who led Wilson's fight for ratification, used to tell how he came to see Wilson during the League of Nations battle bringing the reservations proposed by Sen. Lodge (grandfather of the present U. S.
Ambassador to the UN), reservations which would not have altered the effectiveness of the League, yet would have permitted its speedy adoption by the Senate.

"You haven't come to talk compromise, have you?" asked Mrs.
Wilson. And in the opinion of the senators who fought for Wilson, her unyielding opposition was chiefly responsible for the defeat of the League of Nations.

Joe Tumulty had not been well for a long time. But before he passed away last week, he could look back over the vista of his 75 years and know that he was always faithful to one man.

said.

British Are
In Tizzy
Over Our GIs

By TOM A. CULLEN
NEA Special Correspondent
LONDON—(NEA)—Can the British arrest an American GI for refusing to support a child born out of wedlock? Can they order U. S. military authorities to clean up prostitution near an American air base?

These questions have American legal experts, as well as Britain's beggled barristers, in a tizzy.

For nearly three years the Americans have been urging the British to take jurisdiction over GIs who commit offenses against British persons or property during off-duty hours.

A law to this effect has been passed by both houses of British Parliament. It has been signed by the Queen and everything. But nothing's been done to enforce it.

"We're waiting for an Order in Council," a Home Office spokesman explains.

Meanwhile, the U. S. Senate, which ratified an agreement last summer making GIs subject to most British laws, is left "holding the pact."

Lord Chief Justice Goddard recently sat in a case involving a taxicab brothel operated near a U. S. air base at King's Lynn. It was "an open and shameful sen-dai," Lord Goddard cried. What, he wanted to know, were the American authorities going to do about it?

"Do about it?" a startled Air Force officer echoed. "We have no jurisdiction in King's Lynn or in any other English town."

This same Lord Goddard recently presided at a bastardy order hearing worthy of a Gilbert and Sullivan opera.

Sergeant X, after first admitting that he was the father of a child born out of wedlock, later withdrew his admission; thereupon Mary Y, a British citizen, sought a court order for his arrest, charging non-support.

While the lawyers argued whether they could attach Sergeant X's Army equipment and gear, no one seemed to notice that Sergeant X was not in court. He wasn't even in the United Kingdom. He had been rotated to the States the previous month. In fact, he was now "Mister X," having already been discharged.

The number of paternity cases involving American servicemen is less than three per cent of the number of GIs who marry British girls every year, according to Col.
Cechmanek. "GIs in Britain, almost without exception, are decent American boys."

Miami Man Grows
His Own Coffee

MIAMI, Fla. —(AP)—A blind, 78-year-old Miami man has a simple solution to the problem of soaring coffee prices—he grows it himself.
Charles F. Oxar got two pounds of coffee from his 100-by-200 foot garden last year. This year he hopes for a bigger harvest.

Oxar said he began his coffee-growing experiment near the end of World War II when his son, who was in the Navy, brought home a coffee plant from Brazil. It was from this plant that Oxar got his coffee last year. But now he has 30-odd more trees on their way to becoming bearers.

"Why worry about coffee prices when you can grow coffee?" Oxar asked. "All my plants are growing, they're coming along fine."

New Phillips 66 Flite-Fuel provides increased

Long Cane is New 'Eye' for Blind Vets

By KENNETH O. GILMORE
NEA Staff Correspondent
WASHINGTON (NEA)—Blind veterans are now being taught to use a special long cane in their endeavor to walk without fear in a dark world.

The Blind Rehabilitation Section of the Veterans Administration Hospital in Hines, Ill., is performing miracles with this revolutionary method of aiding sightless veterans.

For centuries the blind have stumbled along with an ordinary short cane which they used in an attempt to hide their handicap. The modern long cane does no such thing, for its sole purpose is to guide and guard.

Dr. R. E. Hoover, eye surgeon at Johns Hopkins' Wilmer Institute

This keeps your skin constantly supplied with an abundance of cholesterol and esters. Result: dry skin is overcome—premature dry-skin wrinkles quickly fade, giving you a surprisingly younger look. IN BUSY CHICAGO LOOP, blind veteran Lloyd H. Greenwood plays role of a veteran named McCabe as he threads his way through crowds for VA film showing use of "The Long Cane."

and consultant to the VA, originated the idea of a long cane 10 years ago while stationed at the Valley Forge Army Hospital. Hoover devoted long hours to the project and often blindfolded himself to fully understand the problem.

The orientation program a blind person has to go through before he can master the use of the long cane is not easy.

Take the case of Lloyd H. Greenwood, one of the first of 300 veterans who have had the chance to learn the process. As an officer in the Army Air Force he lost his sight when wounded on a mission over Vienna. In 1945 he became a patient at Valley Forge and while there was introduced to the long cane.

In three months, Greenwood was able to walk around on his own. Soon after he came to Washington to become Executive Director of the Blinded Veterans Association. For six years he devoted time and effort to the cause of blinded veterans. Today he is a freelance writer.

When the VA wanted to make a documentary film about the long cane they called on Greenwood. He agreed and went to Hines to play a role he had once been through himself.

Here is the step-by-step training of a blind veteran named McCabe, as portrayed by Greenwood in the VA movie, "The Long Cane."

The day McCabe entered Hines he was given a long aluminum cane. Private instructors patiently began teaching him how to handle the strange object. For many days he practiced by walking the corridors of Hines. Finally he found the cane began hitting obstacles before he did.

Between lessons McCabe learned to type, read Braille and accustom himself to eating and neatly dressing without aid.

The second stage of the training occurred outside where McCabe tackled the grounds and eventually the small town of Hines. Slowly the swinging tip of his cane became more and more sensitive as it accurately revealed curbs, stairways and trees. But along the way there were discouraging mistakes.

The greatest problem for McCabe, as with all veterans, came in gaining confidence in his ability to use the cane. An instructor always stayed close by as he struggled with new and harder situations.

The last stage of McCabe's orientation took place in the Loop in Chicago. No one at Hines looks forward to this ordeal, for walking in the confusion and rush of the city presents the toughest conditions imaginable. A veteran who can successfully cope with Chicago is ready to leave Hines and resume a normal life.

Most make the grade, a few do not. For those that do the long cane gives them vision enough to make a way for themselves without having to depend on help. That is all they ask.

Easter Symbols Change, Customs Seldom Vary

Father Time—the bearded old gentleman whom myth-makers picture waving a scythe and wearing a nightgown—may blink his eyes in mock surprise on Sunday, April 13.

"If this is Easter," he well might ask, "then where is the peacock? What are flowers doing in church? Why all the fuss about sending Easter cards, and wearing new clothes?"

The answer is that Easter, once observed in stark simplicity, has become the chief religious festival of modern times. Faith in the Resurrection is still expressed by customs essentially unchanged, but many early Easter symbols have faded away.

Take the peacock, a favorite Easter symbol for over five centuries. Because of an amazing life span, ancients believed its flesh resisted decay; hence, immortality. As a result, peacocks were being inscribed on church walls long after the Roman Empire adopted Christianity as the state religion.

Early Christians also preferred jonquils to Easter lilies, because their petals resembled a trumpet, the musical instrument mentioned most often in the Bible. But it was 400 A. D. before church officials allowed any flowers to beautify Easter services.

Even the Cross, universal symbol of Easter, has been altered. Originally, it was completely unadorned. To lighten memory of the Crucifixion, a halo of flowers was often placed above.

By the 8th century bas-reliefs of Christ were usually to be found on the Cross. At that time, Jesus was always represented as alive, young and beardless, with a loving compassionate expression.

However, most churches did not affix the Cross to their structures, or use it as interior or altarpieces, until the 1400's. The influence of Renaissance artists then took hold. Their inspired paintings of the "Crucifixion," "Descent From The Cross," and many other Biblical scenes helped establish two things: our modern conception of the Saviour's appearance, and the Cross as a traditional church ornament.

Our modern Easter Parade, on the other hand, owes less to imaginative fashion designers than you

Child Care Part Of Transit Woes

MONTGOMERY, Ala. — Manager J. H. Bagley of the Montgomery City Lines says "baby sitting" and delivering lost and stray children to their parents has become a major part of his company's job.

Increasing numbers of the 2,200 children who ride his transit system back and forth to school every day seem to forget where they live, Bagley said.

"It takes two cars just to cruise around and gather up the little fellows who don't know where they live," he added. "It's gotten so bad we've just told the drivers to keep 'em and bring 'em in until we can locate their parents."

The worst part is the parents' seeming indifference, Bagley said. He told of one mother who was reached by telephone and told to come and get her lost, first-grade child who was "crying on a bus and did not know where to get off."

Japanese Jolts

Japan is 85 per cent mountainous, with 54 active volcanoes and 1000 hot springs, and is subject to about four earthquakes daily. Tidal waves follow severe shocks, and typhoons are common, with disastrous fires accompanying them.
